SCATTERED
THOUGHTS

In Dedication.....

Marlyn (Baldy) Kelch was hired in 1971. His administrative official position was Day Engineer. At Marysville High School, however, he was officially the all-around guy. He had the keys to open the doors of our school and our lives. Baldy just didn't come and do his job, he went above and beyond and got involved with the students' and staff's everyday lives. You could count on hearing a "hello", and sometimes a joke, from Baldy each time you spoke to him. Not only was he in the hallways, but you could find him at each sporting event taking tickets or being there for moral support. He will always be remembered for the fun and laughter he brought to our lives. The school echoes with his memory after he retired in March of 1997.

Although some of our lives will scatter after high school, it is wonderful to know that we still have family. Families consist of many things. Our own families, family of friends, and our school family remain constant in our memories. The 1998 Viking is dedicated to Baldy Kelch and Maxine Smith who are brother and sister-in-law and have shown us that family is always there for you.

Today's Menu

What's cookin'? The menu item today features Maxine's chili! We all looked forward to lunch in the cafeteria on those days. The chef of the delightful dish was Maxine Smith who was hired in December of 1984. As head cook she prepared the meals we would remember throughout our high school years. Although we did not see her in action in the kitchen, she was an avid fan of all students. Mrs. Smith helped the student body in the kitchen and on the field. For her tremendous efforts, she was named employee of the year in 1996. After thirteen years of dedicated service, she retired in June 1997.

Homecoming

Right: A favorite of the parade goers is to be entertained by the many clowns.

Below: Many of the senior girls sit on the track to get the best view of their last Homecoming pep assembly. Although they laugh now, tears are welling in their eyes thinking about June.

Above: Leading the way in Viking attire is Andrew Frikken. Behind him are team members all extending a hand in gratitude for the support given to the team from their loyal fans.

It couldn't have been a nicer day for Homecoming believe these sophomores--sun, fun, friends, and a win!

GRAND MARSHALL Mrs. Ellen Burns

Right: Mrs. Joyce Blackney, chauffeur, proudly escorts Jeremy Barber and Carrie Davis as they wave excitedly to the crowd Cheering their loudest for the cause are Mike Mihal, Dan Parent, Nick Storey, and James Critzon.

Curbside parade watchers Joe Bauer, Crystal Preston and Tiffany Spana have thrown their confetti too early, now they must watch as the parade rolls by.

Above: James Lottner blows his own horn in the ears of his peers around him. Matt Borowski squints from the noise. Right: School Board members join in the parade route to give warm wishes to the community for their fine support. Below: A thankless job, but somebody has to do it; Jordan Stevens works to put the team stats together.

Queen Carrie Davis can't believe that she is the representative for the entire student body.

King. He is the son of David and Janet Haligowski.

Dave's hobbies include playing sports, listening to music and being with his friends. Dave is the captain of the Varsity football team.

His favorite class is Business Law with Mr. Goetz because it is fun and very interesting. Dave's future plans are to attend college; his major is undecided.

When asked how he felt about representing his class, Dave said, "I was very surprised and honored to be selected to represent the class of '98".

EXCHANGE IN STYLE

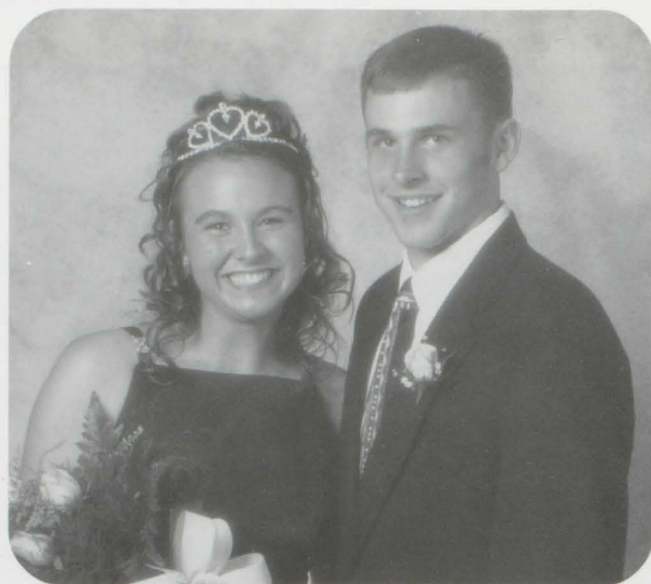

Rachel Kelly came to the U.S. from Australia. She enjoys Chorus even though she says she doesn't sing well, and likes English because she feels it helps her to write her own stories. She thought being part of the Homecoming court would be "cool" and she "couldn't wait". After she returns to Australia, she plans to be a Royal Australian Navy doctor or wild life officer. Her escorts for the evening were her host parents, David and Barbara Barber.

Jussi Marin is a senior from Finland staying with John and Kathy Wesch. The sports he enjoys are skiing and hockey in the winter, and playing golf in the summer. G O F O R T h e G o l d

New to the concept of float building the freshmen took first place. It was built at Jamie Hill's house. Andrea Loane said, "It took longer than she thought it would." "Proud that we accomplished something (getting first place)" was also mentioned by Erin Davis.

Second place was taken by the sophomore class. Kasey Knuth held the building of the float at her house. Elizabeth Matuszewski said, "I had a blast." It was her first year attending float building and making flowers was easier than she had anticipated.

Fun, frolic, and frantic were the juniors who built the Homecoming float. For 1997, the Junior float was built at Andrea Sheehy's house. Not a lot of construction workers were there, but those who were dedicated to the cause made it their best to earn a third place finish. Those that were there worked frantically to finish five minutes before the deadline. As a last ditch effort, the seniors tried to spy on their creation. Once the juniors took charge, the scared senior girls ran right back to their senior site. This proved to be a junior victory over the seniors' fourth place.

As you can see the Seniors produced another "original" float taking fourth for the fourth year in a row.

The float building crew was quite skimpy this year, But the job still got done. Everyone had a lot of fun and the food was excellent. Especially the chili. which had venison in it--but don't tell any of the girls.

VIKINGS - DON'T

The parade kicked off the 1997's Homecoming excitement for Friday. The streets were lined with lots of fans including students from Washington, Morton, and Gardens Elementary Schools. This year's parade was disturbed by a threatening drunk driver. Luckily Mr. Holowitz who was driving two of the court representatives got the situation under control. Despite the extra car the parade went smoothly.

Right: Adam Kohler looks dazed and confused as he roller blades through the streets.

FROM BEGINING TO END, MARYSVILLE RULES!

During the assembly, each class had a shout off for a spirit jug. After the seniors proudly won, representatives from each class destroyed the teachers in an exciting race consisting of a mummy wrap, pie eating contest, spinning, wheel-barreling and...cross-dressing?

Bob Newman and Greg Hudson comically comentate the assembly's events from the press box.

The Homecoming game couldn't have started on a more perfect Friday evening. The stands were packed full and the intensity hung heavy in the air. Then there was the kick-off. From then on, the game belonged to Marysville. Halfway through the game, the coaches decided to put in the 2nd and 3rd string. After punching the ball into the end zone, they held their own, keeping the lead holding Lakeshore to only 21 points. The final score was 56 to 21!

Right: Kenny Brengman, Jake Godlewski's uncle, gets the crowd fired up.

Below: The offensive line waits to set for the cadence.

Tune Into Murder

The suspenseful drama, "Tune Into Murder," was acted out by the seniors in January 1998. It revolved around the resort, Four Seasons Lodge, which was located on an island. Sid (K. Down) had been trying to sell his half of the island but, Nora (L. Jennings) wouldn't give up her home and business. When Marla (K. Wilkerson) suddenly died after eating several chocolate-covered cherries, everyone assumed she had a heart attack. Everybody tried to fool everyone else, but the killer eventually gave herself away. Every movement was broadcasted over WRAP, and the talk show actually saved the day. The actors and actresses of Marysville High School consist of the following: J. Barber, J. Bilina, K. Down, C. Falk, N. Focht, A. Frikken, A. Gaw, R. Graham, R. Holowitz, L. Jennings, K. Kaufman, S. Kettlewell, J. Kingsbury, K. Marriott, T. Meinhardt, C. Myers, J. Neal, D. O'Boyle, J. Politzer, J. Raupp, J. Smith, K. Wilkerson, and directed by Miss Stevens.

I'LL BE MISSING YOU

BY: PUFF DADDY & FAITH EVANS FEATURING 112

SEEMS LIKE YESTERDAY I USED TO ROCK WITH YA'LL I LACE THE TRACK YOU LOCK THE FLOW SO FAR FROM HANGING ON THE GLOAK FOR DOUGH NOTORIOUS THEY GOT TO KNOW THAT LIFE AINT ALWAYS WHAT IT SEEMS TO BE WORDS CAN'T EXPRESS WHAT YOU MEAN TO ME EVEN

THROUGH YOUR FAMILY I'LL FULFILL YOUR DREAMS IN THE FUTURE CAN'T WAIT TO SEE IF YOU OPEN UP THE GATE FOR ME REMINISCE
SOMETIME THE NIGHT THEY TOOK MY FRIEND
TRY TO BLACK IT OUT BUT IT PLAYS AGAIN
WHEN THIS REAL FEELIN' HARD TO CONCEAL CAN'T IMAGINE ALL THE PAIN I FEEL GIVE ANY-THING TO HEAR HALF YOUR BREATH I KNOW
YOUR STILL LIVIN' LIFE AFTER DEATH

(CHORUS) EVERY STEP I TAKE, EVERY MOVE I MAKE, EVERY SINGLE DAY, EVERY TIME I PRAY I'LL BE MISSING YOU THINKIN' OF THE DAY WHEN YOU WENT AWAY WHAT A LIFE TO TAKE WHAT

This year the Senior Steering Committee started their fundraising by selling Sweetest Day candy grams. The sales were definitely a success. The class of 1998 is looking forward to the activities that remain in their high school careers. Before they know it, senior prom and graduation will all be a memory.

H. Thompson, J. DeNardin, and M. Klieman go through a fundraiser catalog.

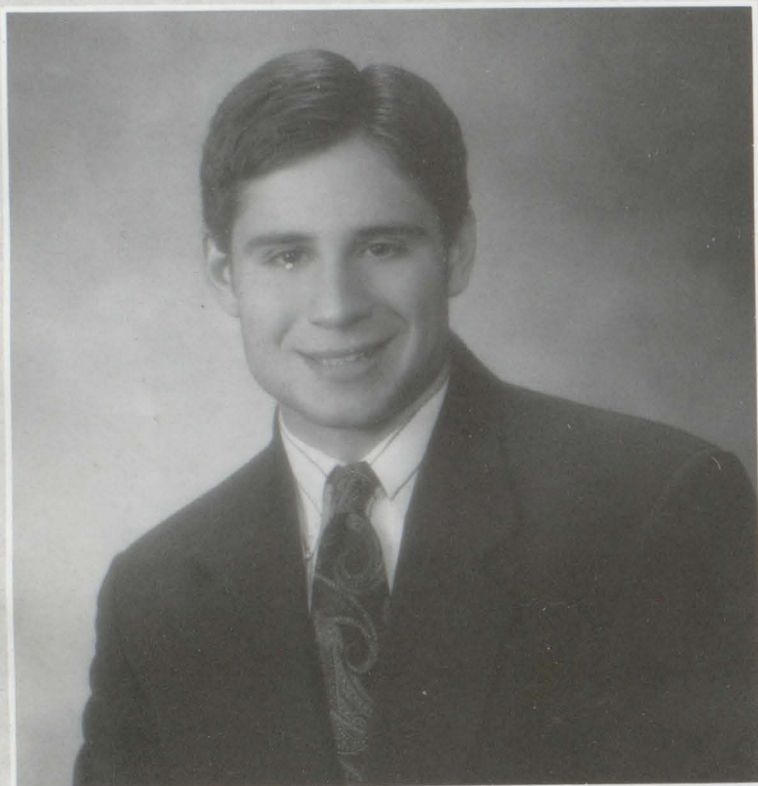

J. Raupp, K. Kaufman, C. Davis, K. Reed, B. Rockwell, R. Graham, C. Furtah, and H. Lenn gather together after a very intense meeting.

VALEDICTORIAN SALUTATORIAN

DAVID HALIGOWSKI

David Haligowski, with his 4.064 GPA, had earned the honor of being the class of 1998's Valedictorian. With support from his parents, David and Jan Haligowski, and brothers, Joe and Mike, he accomplished much in his high school career. David was active in sports as captain of the football and basketball teams, a member of the National Honor Society, was a DARE role model, and even made time to coach youth basketball and flag football. David also received All-State Academic honors for football, and the Fred Vincent Award for the Blue Water Area.

David plans to attend a four year university, but his major course of study is yet undecided.

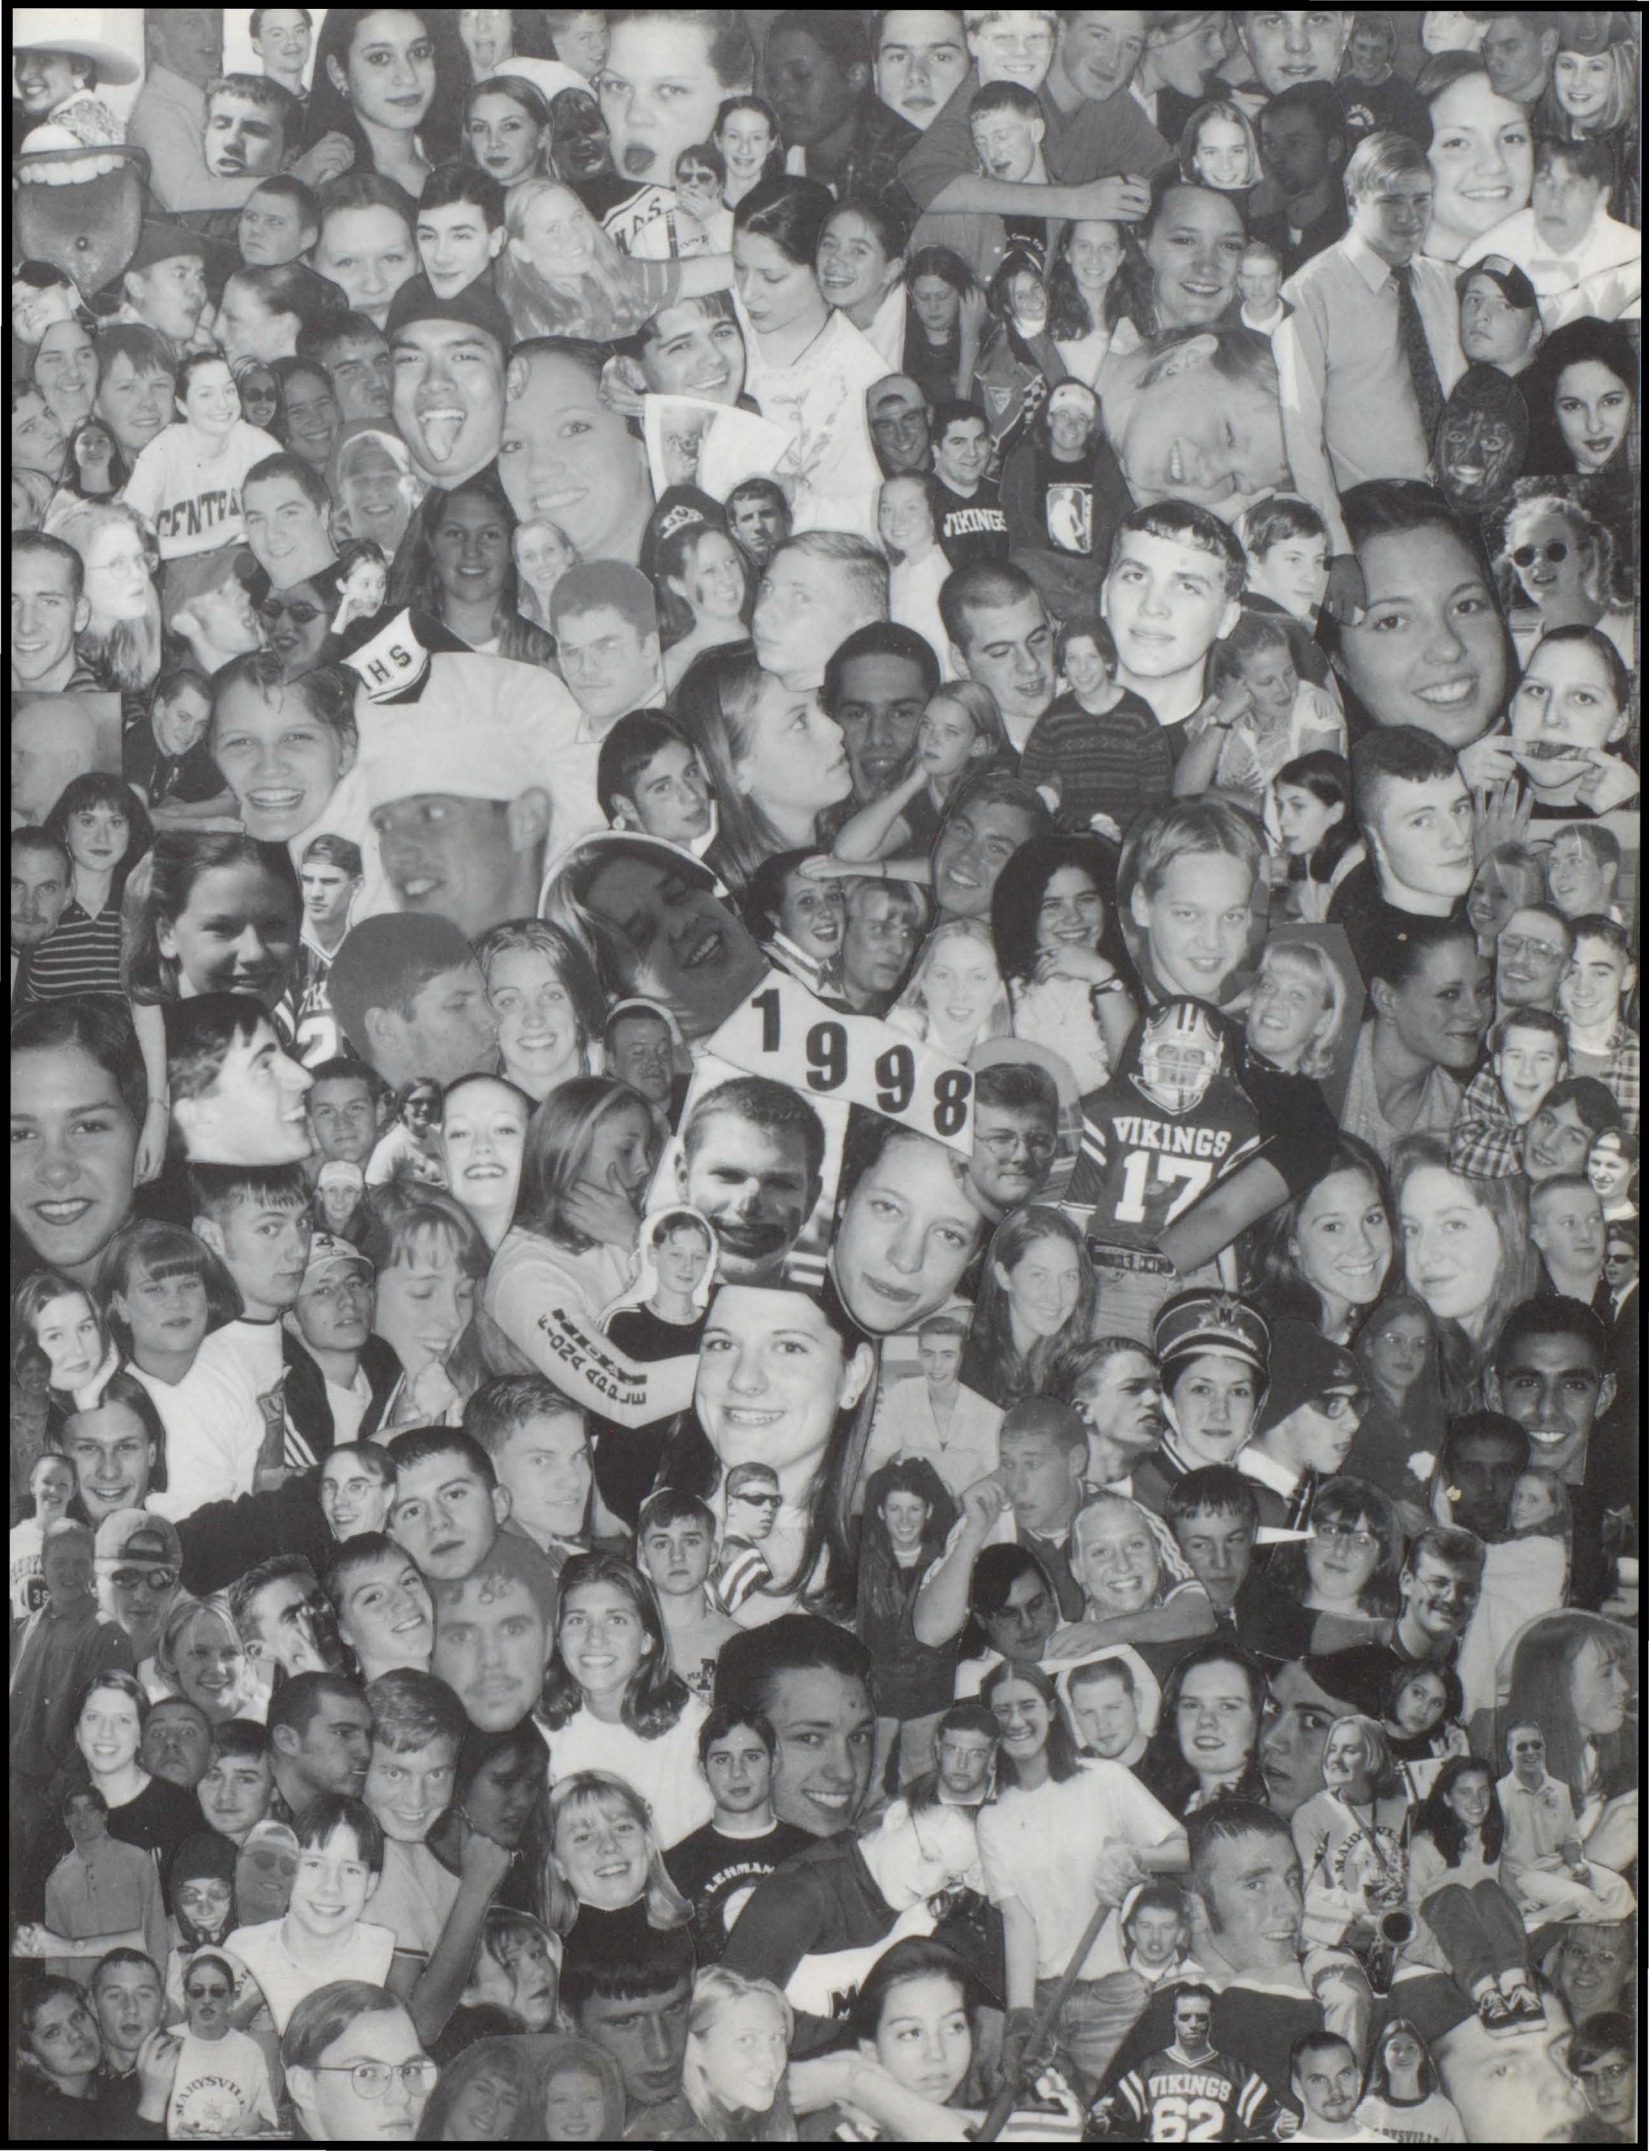

KAREN REED

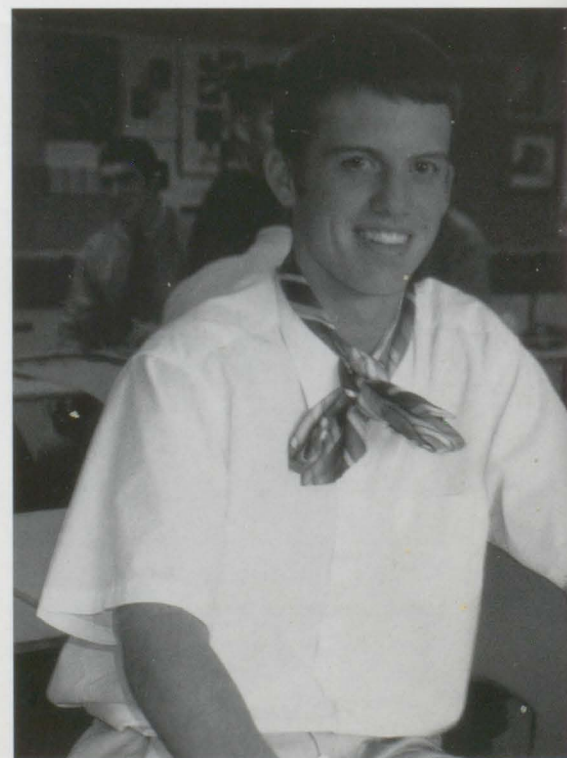

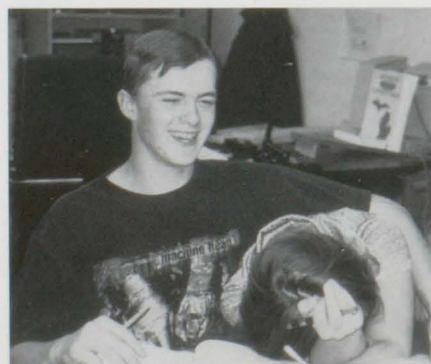

The class of 1998's Salutatorian was Karen Reed. Beyond her active family life with parents, Doug and Bette Reed, sister, Julie, and dog, Shadow, she achieved a 4.047 grade point average.

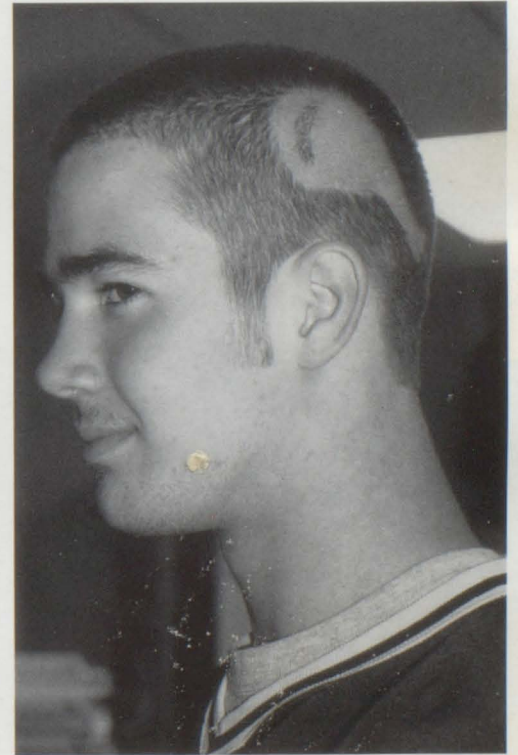

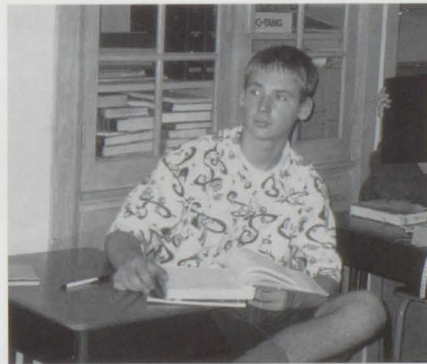

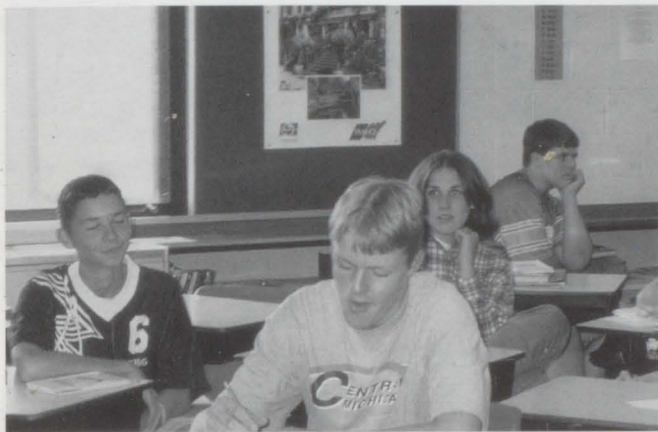

As a four year member of the varsity cheer team, Karen had experienced many events which resulted in her favorite memories. Cheerleading had taught her a lot of life-long lessons, but she said, "The best part is that all my teammates truly are my 13 best friends, and we always have fun when we're together." Other interests include dancing, listening to music, and spending time with friends.

Karen's future plans consist of attending SC4 for one or two years and then, transferring to Michigan State University to major in Biology or Pathology.

Rachel Matheny, Jessica Pyden, and Jenny Bryan are having too much fun preparing food in their Nutrition class to worry about preparing for the state's exam--the HSPT.

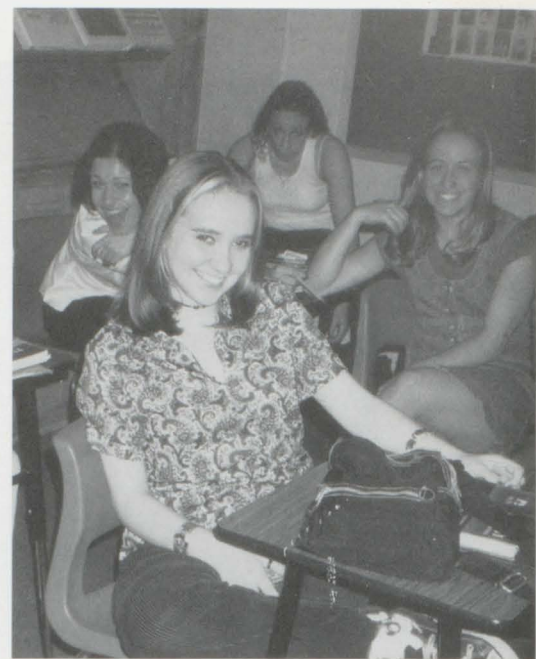

Before it all begins, students aren't too fearful of the time in January. Brian Curtis says, "No sweat. Bring on the HSPT." This was September, four months before it was supposed to begin.

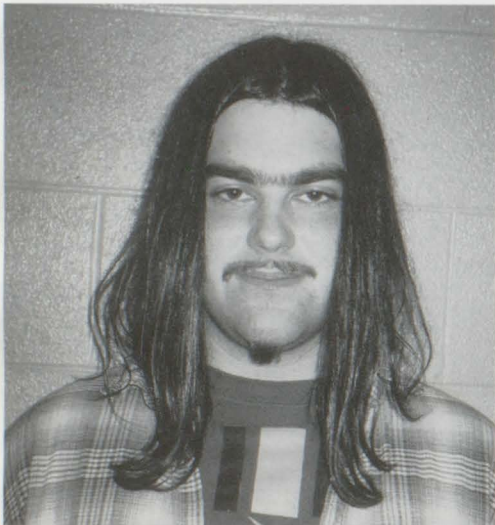

Below: Doug Haney and Jamie Grace aren't letting the HSPT scare them.

Everyone looked forward to their junior year! Well, not really. This was the year of state exams, junior prom, and preparing for college or a career. This was the most important year of high school. Since freshman year the juniors have experienced late Wednesdays, F.I.T. and now, the planner. The junior class has said to dislike the planners the most. They liked the idea of becoming organized, but not to have to use them as hall passes. Then there were the four worst letters of the alphabet--HSPT--the biggest mindshattering test of the year. Students complain that it's too long, too boring, and not even worth it. If it doesn't affect graduation, they want to know, why take it? the answer--to show employers that we excel in school. All in all, whatever happens, happens. At least we were able to look forward to junior prom!

"Hey Jon, What's up?"

To stay away from dreaming in class, Brian Sturdevan takes a drink of coffee to satisfy his caffeine cravings.

Jaime Francisco looks up from her work while in the Library.

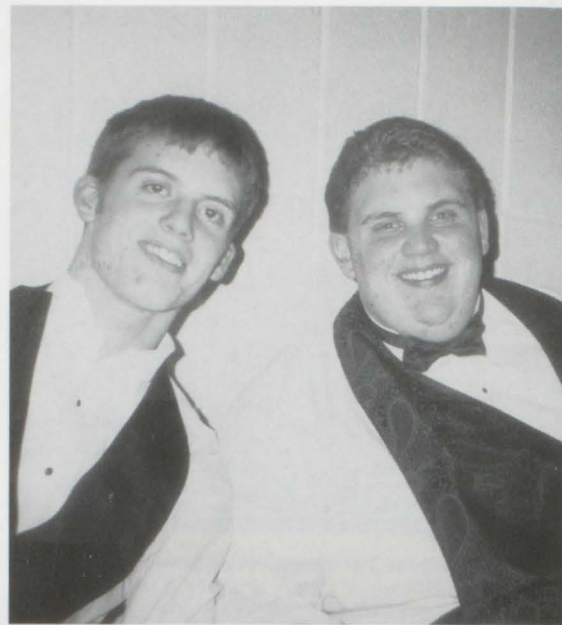

Greg McCormick kicks back to think about the better things in life.

This year's class advisors were Mrs. Seddon and Mr. George. These great advisors got the Juniors off to a great start and led this Steering Committee and its class to having a very successful year!

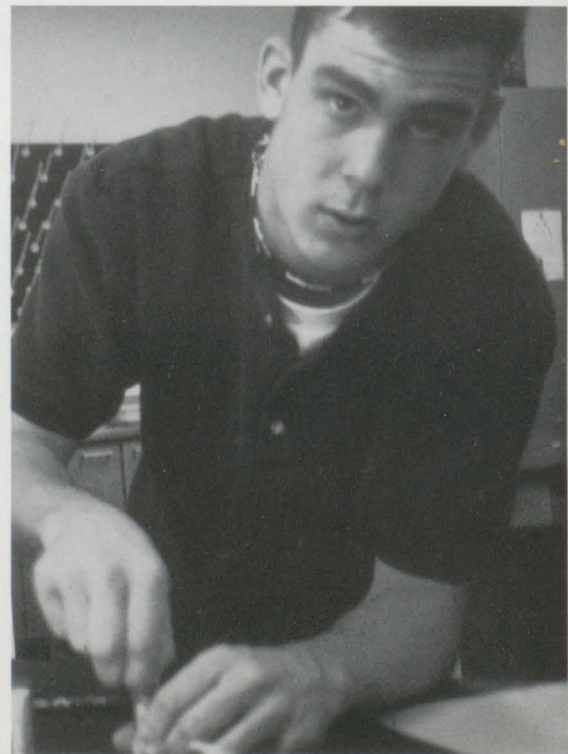

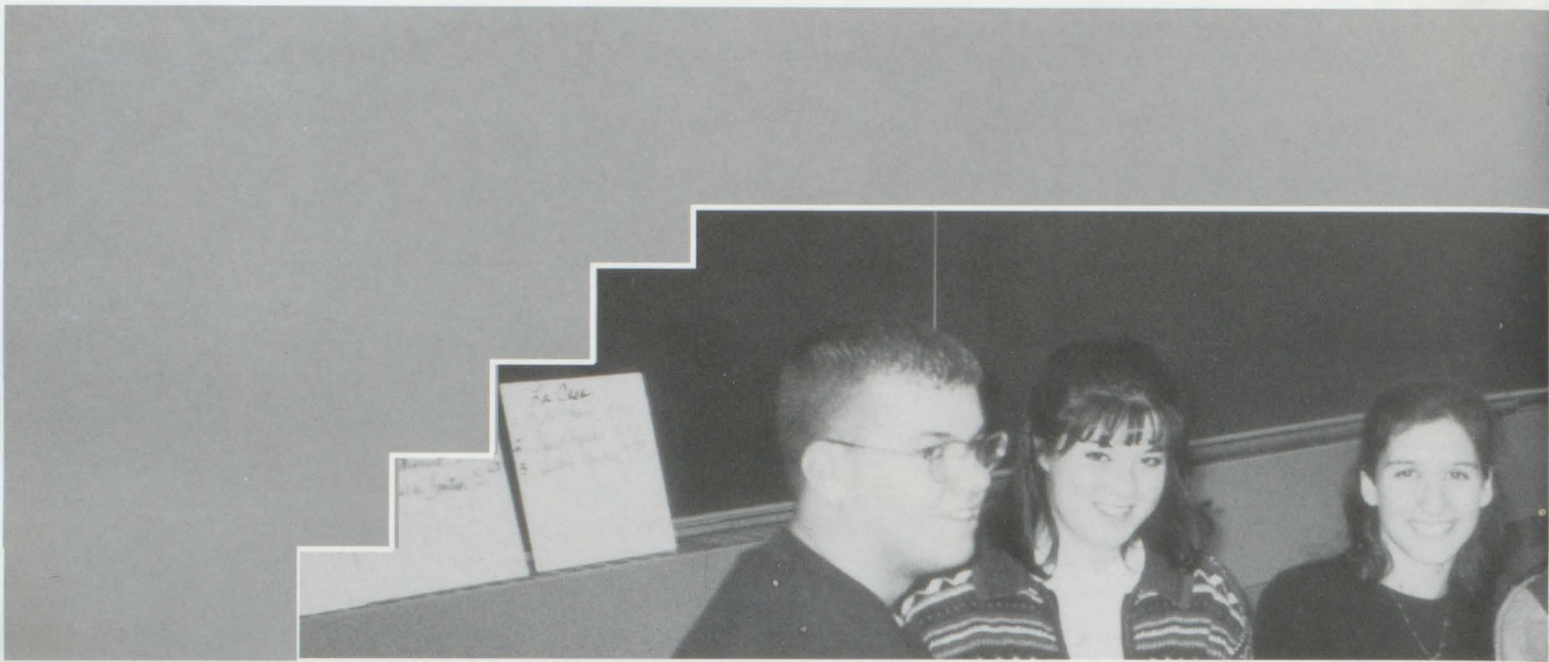

Putting the Pieces Together

The Junior Steering Committee had a wonderful year. They had a great time building their class float, which placed third, (although many claim it was # 1!). This bunch of spirited students also helped at the concession stand. To get out into the community and reach the kids, the Steering Committee held a DARE Bowl-a-thon. Finally, these Juniors created a mystical "Winter Enchantment" at their prom. It was a huge success, which added to a very spectacular year.

"At least I 'm not a Freshman anymore", may be one of the many thoughts of Sophomores, it sure is one of Kristin Day's thoughts. Sophomore year may seem like there is nothing special about it. You're stuck in the middle with the Juniors, but not good enough yet to have your own prom. You must look deeper into a Sophomore to see what this special year is all about. Sophomore year is the year of growing up and reaching new heights. Students realize they have to be mature about taking school seriously because college is going to come quicker than it seems to be coming. This is also the year when we are not the Freshmen anymore. Through this year we have all matured and found our new identities! Through the clouds, we'll rise up and in doing this, we're moving on to our Junior and Senior years.

There was definitely an advantage about being a sophomore. This was the year when most of the sophomores could drive! This was so exciting. It made us feel more powerful.

This was also the year of friendships. As freshmen, everyone was scared to explore and had their own little groups of friends. Now that we have been through the first year and matured, our class was becoming united as one.

Sophomore Class Officers

This year's sophomore class officers were Sarah Biondo: president, Shannon Roehl: vice president, Sara Bower: secretary, and Jennifer Hadden: treasurer. Our officers not only were involved in Student Council, but were also the head of our Steering Committee. They worked very hard at keeping our class organized and came up with new and exciting ideas for fundraisers.

STEERING COMMITTEE

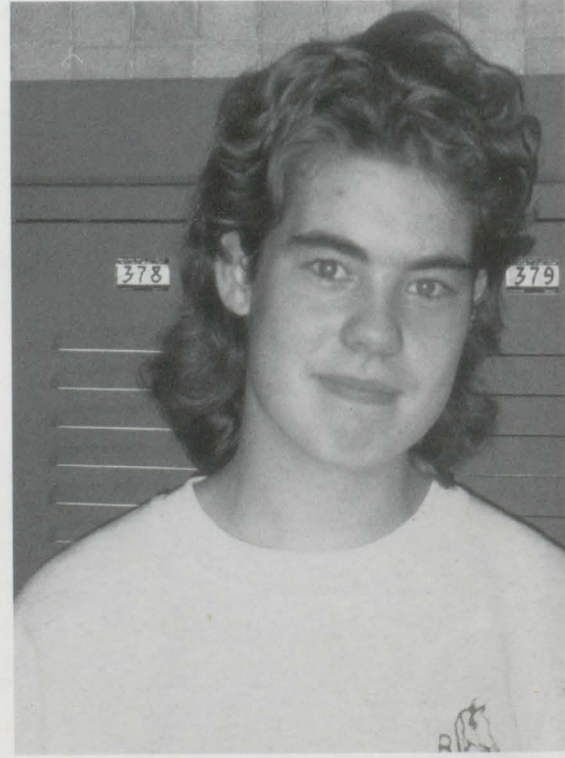

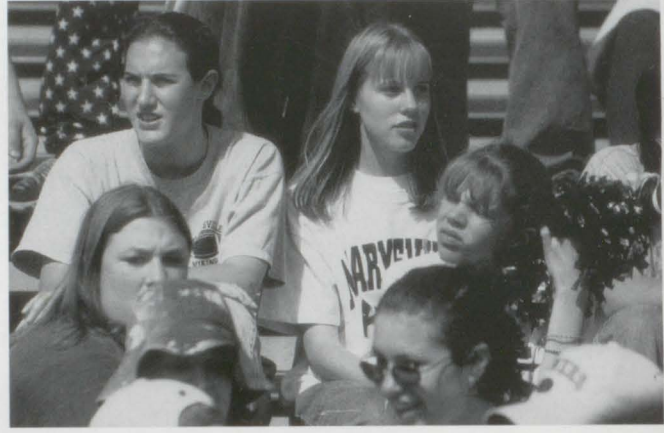

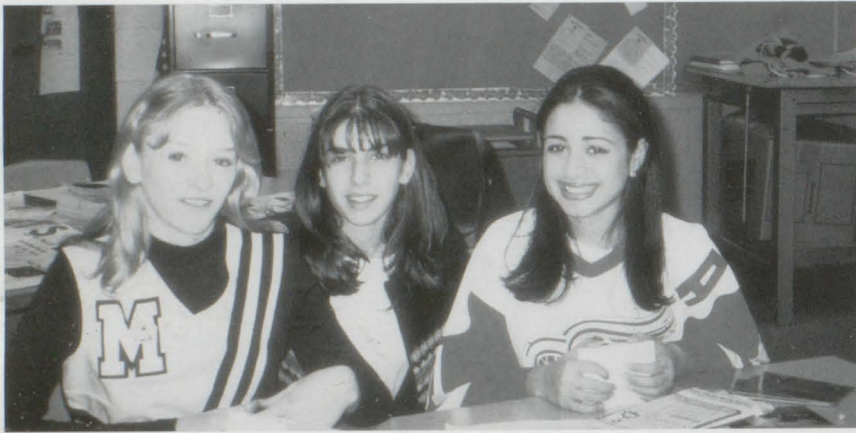

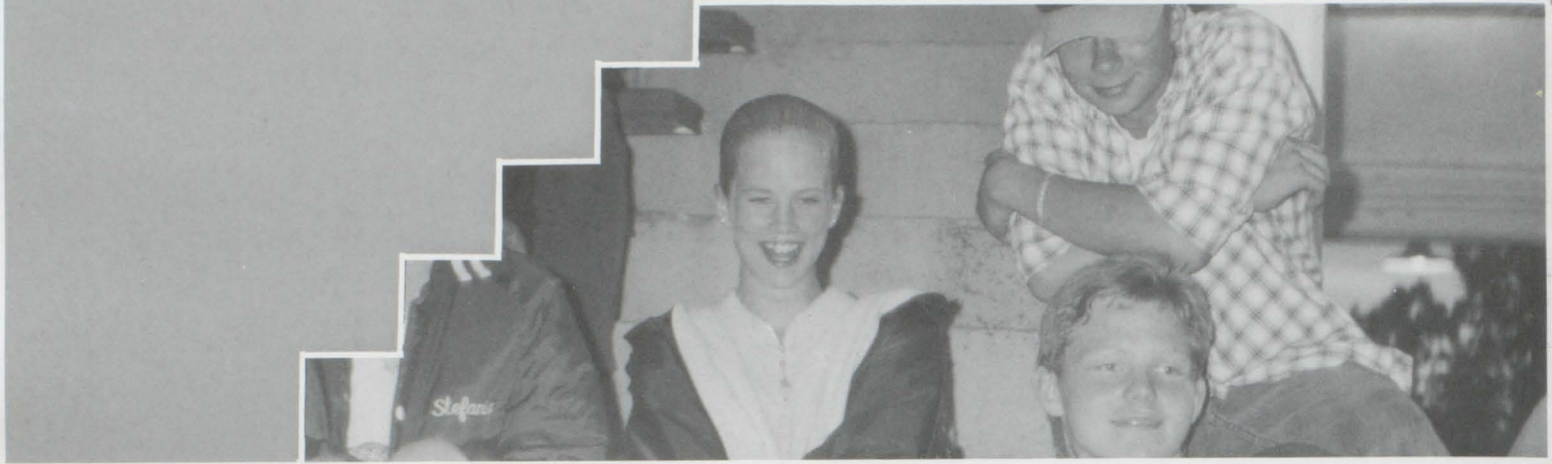

As the year progressed, not only did the Sophomore Class become a whole, but we got a better understanding of what extracurricular activities we could join. "It's been really exciting this year. We now are more experienced in the activities that we join," said Corinne Herlihy (a Sophomore who participated in the building of the float during Homecoming).

This year our steering committee consisted of 62 people. All year long we raised money through fundraisers. This year we did things like holiday gift wraps, chocolates, etc.. Our steering committee advisor was Mrs. Davis. Her leadership helped us achieve our goals. This year our float came in second place... Hopefully we come in first next year!!

Erin Baker and Heather Oakley know that one great thing about high school is your friends.

"I thought it was O.K., it wasn't that big of a deal," said Jon Strachman. Even though Jon wasn't scared, there were a lot of people that had confused minds and butterflies in their stomachs on the first day of high school. A new dimension, a new challenge opened its doors for us freshmen September 2, 1997. It was the beginning of our lifetime as Vikings at M.H.S.

WORK EXPERIENCE PAYS OFF!

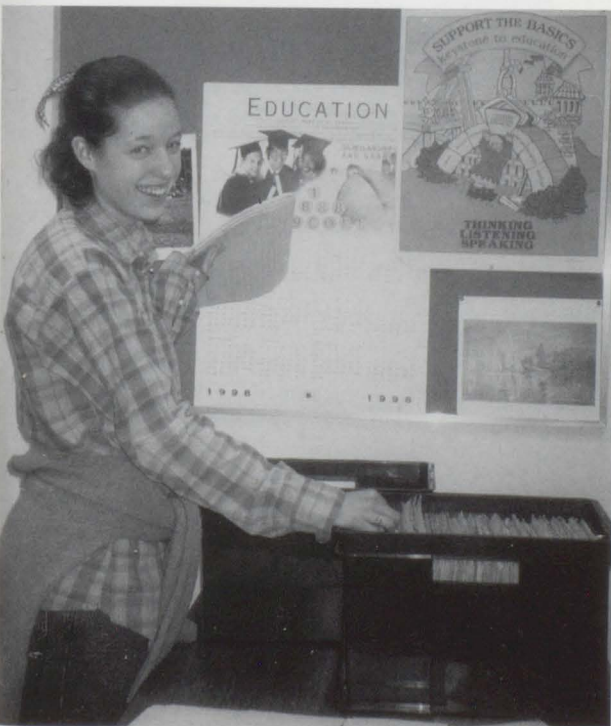

Miranda Thurlow and Kelly Marriott are ready to take your order.

How can Adrian Padilla direct your call?

Co-op was a work-based learning activity designed to give juniors and seniors practical experience. Students involved in the program had the opportunity to investigate a possible future career choice while they received high school graduation credits and fair wages. A wide variety of students have found the Cooperative Education Program a key to their futures. Many area employers continue to support this program annually. Co-op was a stepping stone for many students, and we hope for its continued success. Students involved include: Diandra Atkins, Jayne Balinski, Ariel Cobler, George Coppens, Jamie Currie, Marcinia Divozzo, Jacqueline Dodson, Dan Downs, Jeff Farnsworth, Curtis Furtah, Robert Herman, Carrie Hurley, Kurt Jaworski, John Jeffries, Sheila Karaszewski, Brooke LaDucer, Kenny Marks, Kelly Marriott, Adrian Padilla, Johanna Politzer, Heather Quinlan, Raelene Sawdon, Andy Sheldon, Lisa Stayer, Miranda Thurlow, and Kristy Wilkerson.

The Marysville Viking Regiment has come a long way this past year. It has been a year of many firsts. This summer the band attended the CMU Band camp which was previously held at MHS. They went to improve playing and marching skills. They proudly achieved a score of 60 which broke a record. On October 25, 1997 the band attended the MCBA State Competition at the Silver Dome and placed 8th in the state with a score of 63! This was the first year the band had ever attended states. This year was a great success for all of the band members.

The Varsity shouts victory cheers after a very successful game.

There's no stopping Ronnie Terry as he slides into home--SAFE!

Pitcher John Turrell hurls in another curve ball to put it past the batter.

"The success of the team came from four things," said Coach Houck,

1. A great attitude
2. Very good pitching
3. Team defense
4. Timely hitting."

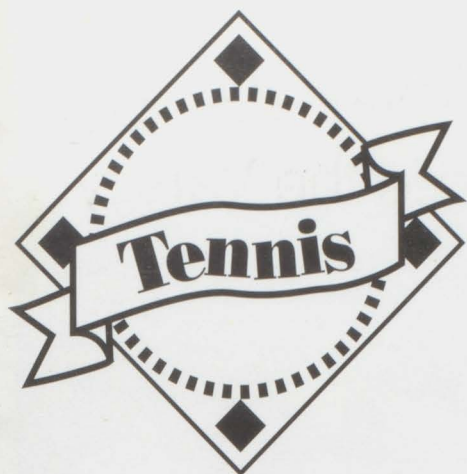

"It's been a fun season to coach, not because of the victories, but because of the hustle and the characters of the team."

The boys basketball team had an exceptional season. They overcame much adversity throughout their season. When the pressure was on this team, they really stepped up and performed well. They brought home a district championship with a win against St. Clair. Their season came to a close when they lost to Flint Power in a close competition.

This year's freshman did very well for their first year of high school volleyball. They were very organized. These girls had the fundamentals and the potential to become a very dominant team. All they need was an open mind, which they proved they had. The freshmen girls were also very coachable. They finished with an overall record of 20-4-1.

This years Junior Varsity team had an outstanding season. Coach O'Dell did a fantastic job coaching the girls. They had a lot of potential which gradually turned into skill throughout the season. The girls got runner-up in their Marysville Tournament and they won the Wayne State Tournament and the Fenton Tournament. They finished their season with a record of 19-5-2. The girls had much fun and became what seemed to be like a family.

This year's Varsity volleyball team was more than successful. They were 59-0-0. The girls won all their tournaments. The season began in November and went through March. It was a long one but to the players, it seemed to fly by. The team united and by the end, became a big happy family. In the playoffs, the girls took a District win against St. Clair. The Regional was a "piece of cake" against Bishop Foley. They played Yale in the Quarter Finals, Jackson Lumen Christi in the Semi-Finals, and for the State Championship, they played Pinnconning and won 15-7, 15-8. The volleyball team set a state record of 116 consecutive matches won, which was also the 9th best in the nation. Coach Knuth was very proud of his girls.

Never falling short in his goals is Mr. Farnsworth who volunteers his time to make Marysville High School the best place for all staff and students.

ADMINISTRATION... By definition means management of the affairs of a business. That is exactly what the administrators of Marysville High School took care of. Our teachers were in the business of making students become productive leaders and they succeeded because of the support they had in their corner. Mr. Hadden, Mr. Farnsworth, and Mr. Venia were concerned about the well-being of the entire student body. If you had a problem or a concern, all you had to do was let them know and they were willing to do whatever they could to help you out. Without the eagerness of these people, Marysville High School would not have had the fine reputation of intelligence and integrity.

The coaching staff of Mr. Quinlan, Mr. Houck, and Mr. Robinson give Athletic Director Mr. Venia their views on what the sports domain should entail.

Happy to report there are no students on the ineligibility list is Mrs. Morenko who gladly welcomes additional responsibility.

Mrs. Sabra Morenko

Ready to deal with all requests is Mrs. Hrisca who anxiously awaits the new issue.

Mrs. Judy Thomas

Parents are welcome to visit and talk with the teachers at any time is the message Mrs. Gorinac relays to concerned parents.

Working on ten things at once is no easy task but Mrs. Schmorow makes it look simple.

Bus Drivers, Cooks, and Custodians!

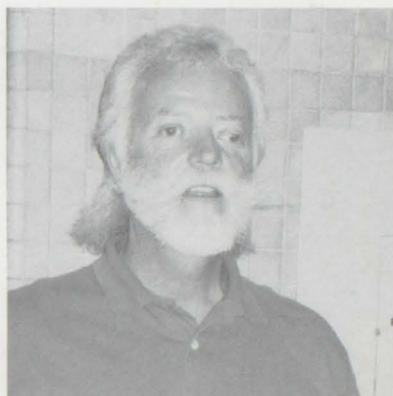

Marysville Bus Garage Staff

Special thanks to all the bus garage staff. Without the bus drivers many things would never be accomplished. We were fortunate to have these people for transportation to games, special school events and transportation to and from school.

Mr. Hurley

The custodians are wonderful! Without them our school would end up looking like our rooms at home. Big thanks!

What would we do without the wonderful cooks? They provide the opportunity of giving students a better education because they make nutritious foods to last throughout the day.

Right: Change is everpresent in our society, and although we don't see too much of Mr. Washington during the day, it is he who keeps the school communicating and the technology working so that we may reach our peak.

AWESOME!

Left: Mrs. Stephan is ready and willing to lend a helping hand to those who still want to try.

Changing of the Guards!

Life offered many opportunities in 1997/98 and we had to learn to take the good with the bad. Officer Thorner, who had been with us for many years, was promoted to "Assistant Chief of Police," that was good. The bad was that he had to leave us at Marysville High School. A "good" came out of that though, when Sergeant Thomas Cowhy took over as our liaison officer. We welcomed him with open arms! This was an example of one of the lessons we learned--that life does offer more goods than bads.

FOLLOWING IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF LEADERS!

Officer Cowhy makes himself at home in his new office.

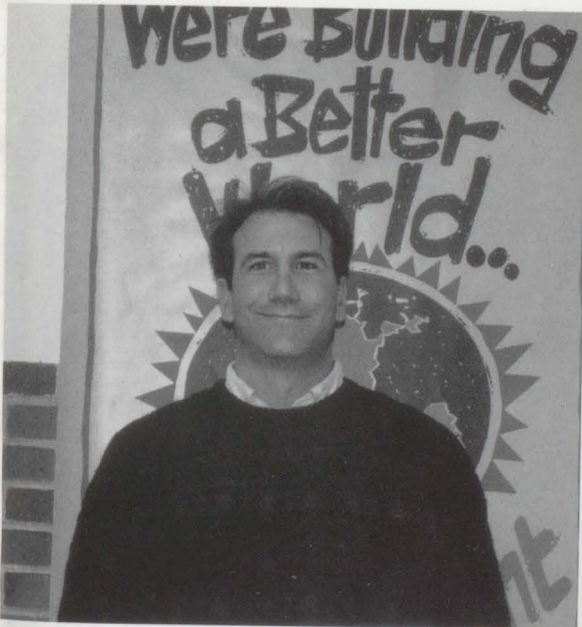

COACHES LEAD THE WAY

Mr. Raymond Martin coaches both, the golf and boys' tennis team. Both had very successful seasons.

Coach Kevin Miller led the girls' tennis team to a Mac Gold Championship for the second year in a row.

Coach Trace Vincent is helping to build a better world for his swimmers.

Coach Ethan Barden, Coach Curt Babb, and Coach Gerry Goodwin are astonished by the move one of their wrestlers has made.

THANK YOU---
TO ALL OUR COACHES!

There are many adults in our lives from whom we learn. Coaches are a great part of the lives of high school athletes. Many coaches are great teachers too. A coach is perhaps one of the greatest teachers. They love their jobs, whether it be teaching or coaching. A coach is perhaps the most trusted of the Marysville High School staff. A lot of athletes turn to their coaches for help with any problem they might have. We have learned that a coach can be a friend as well as a teacher. To them, we offer our gratitude.

THOSE WHO MAKE IT HAPPEN

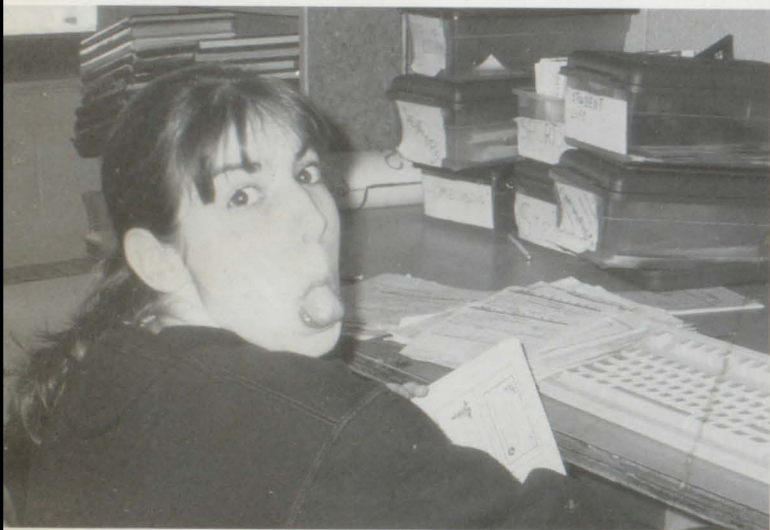

98 Viking staff members include:

.Don't go near Krystal Kenaya when it's close to a deadline--she'll bite!

Juniors Shaleene Glombowski, Pat Germain, Karen Kenaya, and Alison Jones represent their class well in the yearbook.

Taking Yearbook for a class is no easy "A"!--so this Viking staff learned. What pressure and stress rested upon their shoulders when they realized that there are 780 people relying on a yearbook with a timely arrival. Deadlines must be met! It was tough when staff did not follow through on their responsibilities of taking pictures, writing stories, drawing layouts and getting things done. These actions sent panic into those who were dedicated to producing a quality publication. In spite of all the mishaps we suffered and lived through, one thing we learned is that responsibility is not to be taken lightly. From flat tires to broken cameras to exposed film, this staff had seen it all. We thank the students and faculty for a memorable year and although our priorities were scattered at times, we made the final deadline!

Mrs. Hay

Creativity soars in Shawn Maerten's mind as he prepares to make the window covering.

YEARBOOK

--Not just a class, a job!

Exhausted from too much work? "You bet," says Louise Smithson.

Brooke Barnum and Candi Johnson proofread and edit their work to make the Viking accurate.

While working on the student life section, Jenna and Kristen realize that their lives are busy and hectic as yearbook staff members.

Kasey Knuth giggles hysterically when asked if she had time to take on another page layout.

Hold high the torch
you did not light it's glow

twas given from other hands you know

'tis only yours to keep it burning bright

for there are other feet that you must guide

and other forms go marching at your side

someday in turn they'll lift it high and say

I watched another carry it this way!
